

Vita

Darcel Forde is a Change Management Organizational Development Specialist assigned to work in the Office of Human Capital's Organizational Development team at Marshall Space Flight Center.

Born and raised in Chicago, Illinois, her education includes a Bachelor of Science in Social Work from Oakwood University and a Masters of Arts in Organizational Management from the University of Phoenix.

After graduating from Oakwood College (now Oakwood University), Darci (as she likes to be called) has had an extensive career in hospital administration, holding key administrative positions in medical, long term care and in psychiatric facilities.

Upon moving back to Huntsville, Alabama, Darci worked for The City of Huntsville Housing Authority as coordinator for their educational programs, and was a liaison representative between The City of Huntsville and Huntsville Housing Authorities housing programs. She was also instrumental in developing there strategic organizational planning and marketing strategies for the agency's redevelopment plans, as well as work with senior management during transitions from Public to Privatization of public housing.

Darci is married and has two children.